This book takes place after the events in "Katakoji Kazoku"

The following page contains a summary of the story so far

SUMMARY OF "KATAKOI KAZOKU"

There are 4 people in the Takafuji household: Shinobu, his older brother Masaki, Masaki's wife, Reiko, and their son, Kazuomi. Shinobu, who lost his parents when he was still young, developed an unusually close relationship with his brother, Masaki. While watching those two, Kazuomi, from a young age, has always loved Shinobu. Then one day, Kazuomi's restraint snapped, and he pushed Shinobu down. Though they tried to continue their relationship while keeping Masaki in the dark, they were found out, and the family was dangerously close to falling apart. But one thing led to another, and they were able to overcome the tension.

Since then, several years have passed.
This is a story about what happens after Shinobu chose to be with Kazuomi.

Micchi

The soon Kausohei and Shinobu moved into was previously Micchi's house, upon graduating from Meiji University, went abroad to expand his horizons. When he comes back to their Japan, he brings really weird scenarios.

Now, at the end of the conclusion of "Kakashi Kausohei's new story, Kausohei and Shuko had another child (It's really the four-ten-ban Kausohei was comforted by Belts, and things escalated from there. ^-^)" Kausohei now has a cute younger sister who's loved affectionately by everyone in the family. She's growing quickly. Her first room will probably be Shinobu.

Micchi, Shinobu and Kausohei's new life. Together, Kausohei's sister's birth, Kausohei's job hunt... So many things have happened that it's impossible for life to continue as if nothing has changed, but the members of the Takahara family are being happy.
